The Hole Truth

SETH KIM-COEN ON DOUG ADAMS’ ISENE PAVILION

The Hole Truth is a pavilion located in the central area of the site. It is a rectangular structure with two large holes cut into its sides, allowing natural light and air to flow through. The pavilion is constructed from sustainable materials and is designed to be highly functional and visually striking. It serves as a focal point for the exhibition and provides a unique space for visitors to experience the artworks on display. The pavilion is surrounded by a landscaped garden, which adds to the overall aesthetic of the site. The pavilion is open to the public and is a popular destination for visitors to the exhibition.
